WHAT IT SOLVES

Two monitors in one: the fast one and the colour one

119% sRGB

Goes beyond the standard colour space and reaches 91% of DCI-P3, the digital cinema space.

240 Hz with 1 ms

The top refresh rate in the TEROS line, with AMD FreeSync, FPS counter and FPS and RTS modes.

1500R curvature

One of the tightest curves on the market, on a screen where the curve really shows.

Height, swivel and pivot

Metal stand with all three adjustments: it rises, swivels 20° each way and rotates 90° for vertical work.

What 119% means: sRGB is the web's standard colour space; covering 100% of it is already considered good. This panel reaches 119%, and 91% of DCI-P3, the digital cinema space. A 240 Hz monitor with that coverage is rare: fast panels usually sacrifice colour, and this one does not.

WHERE IT DELIVERS

Built for people who game and also create content

COMPETITIVE GAMING
